Thank you for your continued support to the ARMCEN Military Travelling Masons and all other travellers in the province.

Introduction

I see you travelled some, but have you?

Have you truly travelled? Not just in the philosophical sense, but in the deeper, more meaningful journey that Freemasonry invites us to undertake. You may have taken your first, second, or even third regular step, but the path stretches far beyond those initial strides. In Dorset, there are 49 Lodges, each a unique sanctuary of brotherhood, spread across 17 Temples. From the rugged coast of Lyme Regis in the West to the vibrant heart of Bournemouth in the East, from the quarries of Portland in the South to the quiet charm of Gillingham in the North, the compass points are marked. But what lies between? What remains to be discovered?

What was once lost can only be found by those who seek it. Each Lodge holds its own character, its own traditions, its own stories—living, breathing legacies that are not confined to history books but thrive in the present, waiting to be shared. The older brethren may speak of their travels, their experiences and their moments of enlightenment. These are not just tales; they are gifts, passed down to inspire and guide. And now, it is your turn to step forward.

To the newer brethren of Dorset, know this: you are not alone. When you travel, you will be met with warmth, with open arms and with the unshakable bond of fraternity. As you take your place in the columns, you become more than a spectator; you become part of something greater. You are the scaffolding that supports the craft, the foundation upon which the future is built.

And when that first stone—the rough ashlar—is turned, shaped, and smoothed, it is not forgotten. It is a testament to the work, the effort and the dedication of those who came before and those who will come after. It is a symbol of transformation, of growth and of becoming.

So, Brother, I ask again: have you travelled? If not, take that step. Seek out what is waiting to be found. For in the journey, you will discover not only the Lodges and the brethren but also yourself. And in doing so, you will find that the light of Freemasonry shines brighter than ever.

“The Mother Lodge” By Rudyard Kipling - 9 May 1895
There was Rundle, Station Master, An' Beazeley of the Rail, An' 'Ackman, Commissariat, An' Donkin' o' the Jail; An' Blake, Conductor-Sergeant, Our Master twice was 'e, With im that kept the Europe-shop, Old Framjee Eduljee.	For monthly, after Labour, We'd all sit down and smoke (We dursn't give no banquets, Lest a Brother's caste were broke), An' man on man got talkin' Religion an' the rest, An' every man comparin' Of the God 'e knew the best. ~4
“~1” Outside—" Sergeant! Sir! Salute! Salaam! Inside—"Brother," an' it doesn't do no 'arm. We met upon the Level an' we parted on the Square, An' I was junior Deacon in my Mother- Lodge out there!	So man on man got talkin', An' not a Brother stirred Till mornin' waked the parrots An' that dam' brain-fever-bird. We'd say 'twas 'ighly curious, An' we'd all ride 'ome to bed, With Mo'ammed, God, an' Shiva Changin' pickets in our 'ead. ~5
We'd Bola Nath, Accountant, An' Saul the Aden Jew, An' Din Mohammed, draughtsman Of the Survey Office too; There was Babu Chuckerbutty, An' Amir Singh the Sikh, An' Castro from the fittin'-sheds, The Roman Catholick! ~2	Full oft on Guv'ment service This rovin' foot 'ath pressed, An' bore fraternal greetin's To the Lodges east an' west, Accordin' as commanded. From Kohat to Singapore, But I wish that I might see them In my Mother-Lodge once more! ~6
We 'adn't good regalia, An' our Lodge was old an' bare, But we knew the Ancient Landmarks, An' we kep' 'em to a hair; An' lookin' on it backwards It often strikes me thus, There ain't such things as infidels, Excep', per'aps, it's us ~3	I wish that I might see them, My Brethren black an' brown, With the trichies smellin' pleasant An' the hog-darn passin' down; An' the old khansamah snorin' On the bottle-khana floor, Like a Master in good standing With my Mother-Lodge once more. ~7
